

The Minor In ISRAEL STUDIES

Within the Minor in Israel Studies, students will study the history, culture and political structure of Israel and its place within the Middle East. Students from all majors are encouraged to apply and investigate how the minor might supplement their own field of study.

Program REQUIREMENTS

The Minor in Israel Studies provides access to highly qualified faculty and encourages the pursuit of internship opportunities and study abroad experiences. The minor consists of 18 credits, and is organized around the following requirements:

Required Core Courses (9 Credits)

- ISRL 342 / JWST 342 / HIST 376: History of Zionism and the State of Israel*
- ISRL 448: Seminar in Israel Studies (topics change each year)
- One of the following courses in Middle East Studies:**

Students applying for the program must:

- Have completed at least 30 credits hours of undergraduate study
- Be full-time students.

Restrictions:

- Coursework must include at least 9 upper level credits, of which 6 of those credits MUST be taken at University of Maryland. These include credits earned in UM Study Abroad programs.
- A student may use a maximum of 6 credits (two courses) to satisfy requirements for BOTH a major and a minor. Courses completed for one minor, may not be used to satisfy the requirements for another minor.
- No courses with an earned grade below "C-" (1.7) may count towards the minor for students matriculating during the Fall 2012 or later. For students matriculating prior to Fall 2012, no courses with an earned grade below "C" (2.0) may count towards the minor.
- Up to 2 courses may be taken at another university if the courses are approved in advance by the Israel Studies Advisor. These would include credits earned in non-UM Study Abroad Programs.
